

HBCU SUNDAY

October 1st, 2017

Celebrate the history and contributions that HBCU's make toward preparing African American professionals for service in our communities.

Your faith community will present information, events and speakers who highlight the importance of today's HBCU's.

Tell Them We Are Rising: The Story of Black Colleges and Universities

Tickets are $12 for the general public and $10 for Milwaukee Film members. Group ticket prices are $9 for a minimum of 20 tickets. To purchase individual tickets, go online to www.mkefilm.org. To purchase group tickets, please contact Geraud Blanks (geraud@mkefilm.org) or Donte McFadden (donte@mkefilm.org).

Sun., Oct. 1 at 4:00pm
Oriental Theatre
(2230 N. Farwell Ave.)

Thurs., Oct. 5 at 6:00pm
Oriental Theatre
(2230 N. Farwell Ave.)

Fri., Oct. 6 at 9:00pm
Times Cinema
(5906 W. Vliet St.)

Black Lens and Youth Education

How will Milwaukee area youth be involved in the explosive growth of film in our region? Join our Black Lens partners John W. Daniels III and Jasmine M. Johnson along with Black Lens Council members for a special reception to unveil plans for film production among inner city students of color.

Sun., Oct. 1 at 6:30-8:30 p.m.
Good City Brewing
(2108 N. Farwell Ave.)

School Daze: The Black College Experience

An event that is equal parts critical discussion and social mixer as Milwaukee's own vibrant Historic Black Colleges & Universities alumni network is tapped into to discuss the "Tell Them We Are Rising" film, as well as other issues concerning film and television depictions of black colleges and universities.

Thurs., Oct. 5 at 8:00-10:00 p.m.
Colectivo Coffee Back Room
(2211 N. Prospect Ave.)

Wisconsin HBCU College Fair

Sat. Oct. 7 at 11:00am

Harold S. Vincent High School
(7501 N. Granville Rd.)

HBCU Sunday is presented by the Milwaukee Education Partnership (MEP) in collaboration with: HBCU United, Milwaukee Film Festival, Ascension Health Care, ALIVE MKE, VISIT Milwaukee, National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), Wisconsin's African American Faith Communities.

HISTORICALLY BLACK COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES